This report describes the controls in place for the financial year ending 31 December 2023. All staff must complete the anti-bribery training within 30 days of joining. Managers review access rights every quarter and record exceptions in the risk register.

This report describes the controls in place for the financial year ending 31 December 2023. All staff must complete the anti-bribery training within 30 days of joining. Managers review access rights every quarter and record exceptions in the risk register.