This report describes the controls in place for the financial year ending 31 December 2023. All staff must complete the anti-bribery training within 30 days of joining. Managers review access rights every quarter and record exceptions in the risk register.